STREET RODDER

FEBRUARY 1986 VOL. 15 NO. 2

$2.25
($2.75 in Canada)
U.K. £1.95 D.G.S.

"No state of the art here," writes Bob Dewar of his chopped, V-8 A coupe. Although he now lives in Big Bear Lake, California (We wonder if he actually lives in the lake), his early '40s-'50s street rod takes him back to "the days of my youth" in California's San Fernando Valley.

Bob's '30 coupe, with its four-inch chop, rests on '32 rails with a '50 (give or take a few years) flathead, early V-8 trans and rearend. With a dago'd front end, old buggy springs, etc., he said, "This rod goes way back, and it rides like a truck. I think the best description is 'Vintage Tin.'"

Besides an engine rebuild and new top insert, the only other updating he's done consists of conversion to a 12-volt system and an electric fan installation.

As current vice president of the Big Bear Lake Antique & Classic Car Club, Bob notes: "The only change in 40 years is we now cruise Big Bear Boulevard instead of Van Nuys Boulevard!" It sounds like a Beary good time to us.

Car club visits Oak Glen

Oak Glen was invaded by approximately 20 antique and classic cars Oct. 12, when the Big Bear Lake Antique and Classic Car Club had their Apple Run. The cars were parked at the Parrish Pioneer Ranch while members visited shops and restaurants. And all the cars made it back up the hill.
